During the Fee Period, K&S professionals expended a total of 2,692.8 hours in connection with the necessary services performed.

11. The fees charged by K&S in these chapter 11 cases are billed in accordance with K&S’s existing billing rates and procedures in effect during the Fee Period (as discounted pursuant to the arrangement with the Debtors described in the Retention Applications). As disclosed in the Retention Applications, K&S, among other things, agreed as a courtesy to the Debtors to bill at approximately 90% of its hourly rates in effect when services are rendered. Additionally, K&S agreed to offer additional discounts to the Debtors, including but not limited to for certain fees on a sliding scale on fees exceeding certain amounts. Such fees are reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners performing services similar to those performed by K&S in these cases in a competitive national legal market.

12. Exhibit B attached hereto sets forth a summary and comparison of the aggregate blended hourly rates billed by K&S's timekeepers during the preceding twelve-month year and the blended hourly rates billed to the Debtors during the Fee Period. Exhibit C attached hereto sets forth a summary of fees by matter code against budgeted fees and hours. In the aggregate and individually by matter (except for one matter where K&S was below the low range of the budget estimate), K&S's fees incurred during the Fee Period were within the budget estimates for the Fee Period.

13. K&S's charges for its professional services are based upon the time, nature, extent and value of such services and the cost of comparable services incurred in cases other than under the Bankruptcy Code.

Question: Did K&S agree to any variations from, or alternatives to, your standard or customary billing rates, fees, or terms for services pertaining to this engagement that were provided during the Fee Period?

Answer: Yes. K&S agreed as a courtesy to the Debtors to bill at approximately 90% of its hourly rates in effect when services are rendered. Additionally, K&S agreed to offer additional discounts to the Debtors, including on a sliding scale on certain fees exceeding certain amounts.
